"MOVING SALE" WILL PAVE THE WAY FOR GOODWILL STORE'S RELOCATION

BRIDGEPORT, WV, June 30, 2010 – A big sale will precede a little move by the Bridgeport Goodwill store at the beginning of July. Located in the Bridgeport Plaza at 1200 West Main Street, the popular thrift store will stage a "moving sale" on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 2, 3 and 4. The store will close its doors on Tuesday evening, July 6, and will then move just four doors away in the same shopping plaza.

Goodwill executives and local officials will take part in a ribbon-cutting at 9 a.m. Wednesday, July 7, to mark the new store's grand re-opening. The public is invited to celebrate to new location throughout the day with prizes, a raffle, and light refreshments.

The new 14,000-square-foot retail facility will be a "regular" Goodwill store offering a wide variety of gently used clothing and household items, all individually priced. The store that will close on July 6 is an "outlet store" selling clothing by the pound and previously processed housewares and other items at half price.

The 27,000 square-foot location has also housed a Goodwill distribution center, which is moving to another Goodwill warehouse.

Martin Perry with Aegis Realty Partners represented Goodwill in the transaction.
