

Get to Know...

Buckhannon Goodwill Store

Where?

Located at 15 Spring Street in Buckhannon, WV, a small, community centered town which is home to Wesleyan College. Buckhannon's downtown charm is evident and the college atmosphere is bustling.

When?

The official opening for the store was on November 17, 1999, and the doors are now open Monday through Saturday, 9 am to 9 pm, and Sunday, 11 am – 5 pm.

Who?

The 7,468 square foot Buckhannon store is managed by Judy Metz, who has a staff of four full-time and eight part-time employees. Several volunteers also support Buckhannon's efforts

Interesting Facts:

The town of Buckhannon plays host to two major events throughout the year – the West Virginia Strawberry Festival (May) and West Virginia's Largest Garage Sale (August). The store undoubtedly sees an increase in customers and donations during these times.

Why is it successful?

In the Buckhannon Store, you'll find a loyal customer base representing all ages with residents of several surrounding communities. The winning combination of good deals and friendly employees brings customers back time and time again.