

Get to Know...

ROCHESTER Goodwill Store

Where?

The store is located at 750 Ohio River Boulevard, in the East Rochester shopping Plaza with Shop n' Save.

When?

The official opening for the store was on July 10, 1993 and the doors are now open Monday through Saturday, 9 am to 9 pm, and Sunday, 10 am to 5 pm.

Who?

Rochester Store is managed by Tracey Deal, and has 1 full time associate and 15 part time associates, 1 head cashier and 2 assistants. The District Manager is Norma Russell. The store also has a partnership with Beaver County Rehabilitation Center which supplies them with 5 associates daily, who process 1300 pieces of clothing every day.

Interesting Facts:

The Rochester store hangs 2,000 pieces of clothing a day and processes 32 buggies of wares in 1 day. The whole sales floor is changed out with all new merchandise, including clothing, every 14 days.

Donations?

On average 1,141 donations a week and 3 trailers of donations from the warehouse are processed.

Why is it successful?

Customers say it's like a treasure hunt every day. The store is changing daily to accommodate donations and to give the customers more variety.